CELEBRATE

MARCH IS PROCUREMENT MONTH

It is March and time to celebrate our profession with March is Procurement Month. It has been over two years since our world was forced to change quickly due to the pandemic. But as usual, our members rose to the occasion and learned new ways to persevere in our profession. Purchasing professionals should be proud of the success of meeting the needs of their entities needs during this changing time. So many have learned how to become effective in an electronic world, through electronic bidding, Live Bidder's Conferences, Teams and Zoom meetings, etc. Many are now working remote, and it is important to create a sense of team building and inclusion as you work together. We can reach even more people by using virtual communication. We encourage everyone to be present, turn on your camera and engage. Human interaction and facial expression are so needed. Strive to keep emotional and mental support alive for you, your co-workers, colleagues, and family.

The Board of Trustees and members of Central Ohio Organization of Public Purchasers (CO-OPP) have proven we will continue business, even if it is not, as usual. We continue to bring our members educational opportunities through virtual NIGP classes and presentations through our General Membership Meetings. The board hopes to bring an in-person General Membership Meeting to you soon. The vision is a hybrid event in which members may attend either virtually or in-person. We hope once we can meet in-person, we will be able to offer all General Membership Meetings as hybrid, in the future. We look forward to seeing everyone, virtually with their cameras on showing your smiling faces, at the March is Procurement Month - General Membership Meeting on March 17, 2022.

Best Wishes Always,

Celebrate March is Procurement Month General Membership Virtual Meeting

Join us for the CO-OPP 2022 March is Procurement Month (MIPM) virtual celebration with many Ohio Procurement Professionals!

Our guest speaker will be Denise K. Finn, NIGP-CPP, CPPO, C.P.M., CPPB. Denise is the Procurement and Contract Management Services Manager for the City of Fort Myers, Florida. Prior to joining the City, Denise served as the Purchasing Manager for Lee County Port Authority, the Associate Director for the University of Kentucky's Purchasing Division, and as the Director of Procurement and Contract Management Services for Yavapai Community College in Prescott, Arizona.

With almost thirty years of procurement experience in both the public and private sectors, in the U.S. and Canada, she has a proven track-record of designing and delivering outcome-oriented policies and programs that strengthen talent development and organizational effectiveness.

During this event we will look at our own past accomplishments. We will look to our future as we improve our skills; increase our knowledge, and live out our professional and personal ambitions. Come along with us as we share ideas and insights as we network.

Would you like to share brunch with a retired or fellow co-workers you haven't seen in a while? Invite them to join you for a watch party. Register today and receive a gift card for your brunch.

We have gifts and prizes for you. Please make sure your CO-OPP membership is updated with your current mailing address, email, and phone number. You could be a lucky winner on March 17th.

2021 NIGP ANNUAL FORUM AWARDS

ALBERT H. HALL MEMORIAL AWARD

The Albert H. Hall Memorial Award, established in 1979 in honor of NIGP's founder Albert H. Hall, is NIGP's highest honor recognizing outstanding procurement professionals. The Albert H. Hall Memorial Award recognizes a former or present member who has made outstanding contributions to NIGP over an extended period of time. Persons receiving the Albert H. Hall Memorial Award also earn the designation of "Fellow of NIGP" or FNIGP.

During the 2021 NIGP Annual Forum, in Anaheim California, the Albert H. Hall Award was bestowed to CO-OPP's founding charter member Barbara Johnson, FNIGP, NIGP-CPP, CPPO, CPPB, and named a Fellow of the Institute, FNIGP.

The presentation of the Albert H. Hall Award NIGP highlighted Barbara's value to the public purchasing profession. Here is a small recap from the presentation.

Barbara's purchasing career has spanned 42 years in public procurement. During her career she has earned the admiration and respect of her colleagues in the profession. She has been a learner, researcher, author, role model, administrator, manager, work leader, instructor and volunteer leader.

She began her career in public procurement in 1979 when she first joined the Purchasing Office of the City of Columbus. After her years servicing the City of Columbus, she went on to fill public procurement positions with the Columbus Regional Airport Authority and the State of Ohio Department of Corrections. While she made profound impacts at all three organizations it was her passion for leveraging relationships that sets her apart.

She is a natural networker who includes you as a friend, a colleague, a mentor and an instructor. She is always looking for the opportunity to bring people together for the common good. While employed at the Columbus Regional Airport Authority, the organization held membership in the Airport Purchasing Group, Barb decided the APG and NIGP should come together for networking during the NIGP annual forum; the partnership between APG and NIGP is the result of her vision.

Barb joined NIGP in 1984 and is a charter member of the Central Organization of Public Purchasers chapter of NIGP and was its first chapter president in 1994. Over two decades later Barb continues to be a highly engaged contributor to the success of the chapter. She was a major influence in the 2001 NIGP Forum Odyssey to the Heartland in Columbus, hosted by CO-OPP. Barb has served numerous NIGP committees since 1999 as well as a US Communities Advisory Board member and member of the Editorial Board for the Journal of Public Procurement. In 2010 Barb joined the NIGP Board of Directors as a Regional Director and continues to lead as an inaugural member of NIGP Certification Commission.

In 2017 Barb retired from daily public procurement employment but remains active in the profession as she continues to instruct for NIGP and at The Ohio State University, John Glenn College of Public Affairs; has been a key subject matter expert in the development of the Pathway Curriculum; has been involved in the Women in Public Procurement mentoring groups via Facebook and most recently co-founded a new endeavor NIGP Radio.

We extend congratulations to Barbara Johnson on this outstanding recognition. You can watch the full presentation with the NIGP Video link.

NIGP Awards Ohio Chapters the 2021 Chapter Performance Standard Seal

NIGP developed a “standard” in which chapters can strive to follow and advance the opportunities offered to their members. Participating chapters receive a score which records their progress in achieving excellence. Once a chapter successfully meets the standard, a digital seal is issued to recognize the chapter’s achievements during the past year. Chapters are scored on achievements in Chapter Operations, Membership, Professional Development, and Advocacy & Outreach.

There are four tiers, Platinum, Gold, Silver, and Bronze designed to provide motivation for Chapters to achieve an even higher tier in subsequent years. The 2021 recipients were announced on Wednesday, August 25 at the Chapter President’s Appreciation event held during the Forum virtual experience. Ohio chapters received the following:

Silver Chapter
Central Ohio Organization of Public Purchasers

Bronze Chapter
Public Purchasers Association of Northern Ohio

What Have You Missed?

NIGP's RADIO NIGP continues to produce monthly segments. As you start a new year why not start a new habit of watching RADIO NIGP monthly, it may get you thinking about new possibilities. You can catch up on the Radio News complete Radio NIGP Collection. Below is the list of what you may have missed over the past months.

September broadcast What doesn't kill me made me stronger – “Resilience” and it's meaning based on experiences, specifically during the past year with COVID19, included:

- Word of the Day: Guests share their experiences that made them stronger individuals.
 - In Orange: Part II – Ted Wachter story with the outcome of workplace harassment and discrimination suite from 2005.
 - Interview with public Procurement Professionals that have faced difficult situations and came out Stronger: Lourdes Coss, Kristy Varda, and Chris Boss share their stories.
 - Way to Grow: Mentee Tracy Garcia is interviewed.
 - Visionary Views: Interview with NIGP's 2021 Buyer of the Year = Stephanie Dion
 - Chapter Updates: How three Tennessee chapter Presidents have strengthened their bonds after a failed merger attempt.,

October Broadcast Prices Rising – Radio NIGP addresses steps public procurement professionals can take when facing price adjustment requests from suppliers when market prices for goods are extremely volatile and unpredictable.

- Word of the Day: “Price Increase”
 - Hot Topics: Suppliers can't or won't hold their prices, what do we do now?
 - Legally Speaking: What are the legal aspects of modifications affecting price and schedule?
 - Tech Talk: Price increases and longer wait times due to the chip shortage and suggestions about what entities can do to protect themselves against these other issues.
 - Chapter Updates: Recognizing the 2021 Outstanding Chapter Award Recipients and learn how Chapters are handling rising costs.
 - Interviews: Hear what some inspiring public procurement professionals in Way to Grow and Visionary Views have to say.

November Broadcast When is the Emergency Over – Emergencies occur during the everyday functions of the procurement department. The process for handling emergencies varies from entity to entity. Discussion during this segment covers “what happens after the emergency is over”?

- Hot Topics: The team addresses the question “When is the emergency over?” with their answer “It depends!”.
 - Legally Speaking: Legal views about when an emergency ends from both procurement and federal fund reimbursement perspectives.
 - Commentary: When your end users or suppliers have an emergency, who do they call? As procurement professionals, we will explore the role we typically play in emergencies.
 - Way to Grow: Government Procurement magazine columnist Fred Marks discusses what happens after the emergency.
 - Visionary News: Visionary Enna Bachelor discusses how a “team of one” can serve an entity with success.

December Broadcast Procurement Pioneers – Legends from the world of procurement are interviewed and asked about changes they've seen in procurement over the years, lessons learned. Procurement Pioneers include recipients of the Albert H. Hall Memorial Award, Anne Deatherage Meritorious Service Award and the Distinguished Service Award, former National and Chapter NIGP Presidents, Master Instructors, NIGP Leap textbook authors, columnists, and NIGP chapter founders:

Carol Hodes
Jack Pitzer
Kirk Buffington

Dick & Lynda Cummings
Jane Ogle
Paul Brennan

Fred Marks
Jeanie Readey

January Broadcast “Renew” – As a new year starts, we often think about things we would like to change or renew. If you are looking for some new ideas about things to renew, our friends at Radio NIGP have lots of suggestions.

- Hot Topics: It's a new year; a time of renewal: and the Hot Topics crew has suggestions for things to consider in the coming months.
- Procurement Pioneers: An interview with author and NIGP 2009 Distinguished Service Award recipient Dr. Clifford McCue.
- Chapter Updates: Newly elected Chapter Presidents share their plans for 2022.
- Tech Talk: Reviews major technology issues in 2021 and these are setting the trend for Technology changes in 2022.
- I Don't Look Good in Orange: A case of PCard fraud at Georgia Tech and the steps an administrator must take to bounce back from a problematic program
- Way to Grow: What is the Mentorship Committee looking to accomplish in 2022.
- Commentary: When considering the renewal of an old goal or the starting of a new one, it is important to consider ways to ensure success rather than increase frustration. This segment will introduce a methodology that will help keep the momentum of renewal going long term.

February Broadcast “Softening the ‘No’” – No one likes to hear “No” especially from the Purchasing Office. Radio NIGP takes a hard look at how you can soften the 'No' and still achieve your entity's goals. In our profession, we have to help stakeholders understand the potential outcomes of their decisions which is not always what they want to hear.

- Hot Topics: Softening and even removing from your lexicon the “No” at work
- Legally Speaking: When and Why Lawyers Say No.
- Tech Talk: Ways to avoid the “No” when negotiating technology procurements.
- New Segment: Moments with NIGP: Highlights on NIGP with this month's segment focusing on Global Best Practices
- Way to Grow: Thought leaders and mentors explore “softening the No”.
- Procurement Pioneers: An interview with Kenneth Koester, NIGP 2010-2011 Past Presidents/Governing Board Chair, NIGP Distinguished Service Award in 2013 and 2020 recipient of the Albert H. Hall Memorial Award.
- I Don't Look Good in Orange: The case of Richland County Council Woman Dahli Meyers, who was indicted on 24 counts, including making fraudulent charges on her Pcard
- Commentary: No one likes being told “no” but everyone likes to know their options. In our profession, we have to help our stakeholders understand the potential outcomes of their decisions, and that is not always what they want to hear. In this segment, we explore the concept that you may not like me now, but you'll love me later.

Market Research Process

The public procurement professional is responsible for conducting the Market Research Process, which is comprised of three distinct activities: 1. Market Research, 2. Market Analysis, and 3. Market Intelligence. The Market Research Process is critical because it provides the procurement professional with relevant and current information to make the most appropriate decision regarding the procurement of commodities and construction.
